

What's your mission for COY13/COP23?

Your attention catching idea can become reality!

We'll help you!

Nov 1st to Nov 17th 2017, Bonn

Journalists from all over the world will be there. Delegates will negotiate climate action plans. And you will catch their attention by your creative action to let all of them know: Stop talking. Start planting. We invite you to make your own idea become reality during COY13/COP23.

We offer support in making your idea become reality. Connect with young people from all over the world to promote planting trees and taking action against climate crisis – Plant-for-the-Planet's mission. We offer you an accommodation at a favorable price in a youth hostel in Bonn during COY13/COP23 – it will serve as a basecamp for your projects! You will be able to book conference rooms there to work on your ideas.

When? Between Nov 1st and Nov 17th, 2017
You can choose on which days you want to book a bed in the hostel and on which day(s) your action(s) will take place.

Where? Bonn, Germany, at COY and in the Green Zone of COP23
Location of the hostel: Haager Weg 42, 53127 Bonn

Who can join in? Anyone, who would like to make his idea become reality and who is between 18 and 25 years old (exceptions can be granted).

Plant-for-the-Planet is a children's and youth initiative that educates children in how to get active against the climate crisis and plants trees. 55,000 Climate Justice Ambassadors from 53 countries already attended the Plant-for-the-Planet Academies. The children and youth aim to plant 1,000 billion trees. They are responsible for the official tree counter, handed over to them in 2011 by the United Nations Environmental Program. Plant-for-the-Planet was initiated by the nine year old Felix Finkbeiner from Germany. Within the following ten years, the children and youth have planted more than 14 billion trees with the help of many adults and organizations.
